

Human Development Graduate Group Student Travel Award Application (Academic Year 2017–2018)

TRAVEL MUST OCCUR WITHIN THESE DATES: September 1, 2017 – August 31, 2018

Purpose: Students may apply to receive up to $750.00 as a travel award to be used toward conference-related costs: travel (transportation, lodging, food), registration, and poster preparation.

Eligibility: All students in good academic standing in the Child Development MS and the Human Development PhD programs are eligible to apply for this award. Students who apply for this award must present a paper or poster as the first author at a research conference. Each student is eligible for up to three travel awards per year on their individual program of research, subject to availability of funding.

Application instructions: At least thirty (30) days prior to your departure for the conference, submit this completed, signed application AND notification of paper/poster acceptance from the conference to the Graduate Program Coordinator. Applications received less than 30 days prior to travel and incomplete applications will not be considered. If travel awards have been awarded previously, please indicate the year received.

Reimbursement process: In order to be reimbursed for conference-related costs through this award, original receipts must be submitted to the Graduate Program Coordinator after the conference. This funding is not available prior to travel.
